Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

This Notice will tell you about the ways we may use and disclose medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain obligations we have regarding such medical information. We are required by law to make sure that medical information which identifies you is kept private; give you this Notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your medical information; and follow the terms of the Notice that is currently in effect. This Notice covers Dr. Jose Vito, M.D. PLLC (collectively "Dr. Jose Vito", "we" or "us"), including its personnel.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

The following categories describe different ways that we use and disclose medical information.

Treatment. We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, personnel of Jose Vito, M.D. PLLC, who are involved in taking care of you. For example, a doctor treating you for a broken leg may need to know if you have diabetes, because diabetes may slow the healing process. Jose Vito, MD, also may share medical information about you, such as prescriptions, lab work and x-rays, to coordinate your treatment. We also may disclose medical information about you to people outside of our office who may be involved in your medical care.

Payment. We may use and disclose medical information about you so that we may bill for treatment and services you receive and can collect payment from you, an insurance company or another party. For example, we may need to give information about your treatment you received or are going to receive to your health plan so that the plan will pay us or reimburse you for your treatment. In the event a bill is overdue, we may need to give information to a collection agency as necessary to help collect the bill or may disclose an outstanding debt to credit reporting agencies.

Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose medical information about you for operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to run Jose Vito, M.D., PLLC and make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. For example, we may use medical information to evaluate the performance of our staff in caring for you. We may also disclose information to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, and other personnel for educational purposes. We may also disclose information about you to other healthcare facilities as permitted by law.

Appointment Reminders; Treatment Alternatives; Health-Related Benefits and Services. We may use and disclose medical information to contact you to remind you that you have an appointment for treatment or medical care, or to contact you to tell you about possible treatment options and health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. We may release medical information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care or who helps pay for your care. We may also tell your family or friends your condition. If you do not wish us to share this information with your friends and family, please follow the procedures described in the Right to Request Restrictions section of this Notice below. In addition, we may disclose medical information about you to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status and location. As Required By Law. We will disclose medical information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law.

Special Privacy Protections. If your medical information includes HIV-related information, alcohol or substance abuse, mental health or genetic information, special protections may apply to such information, and you can contact Dr. Jose Vito if you have any questions.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. If you, the public or another person, we may use or disclose medical information about you.

Military and Veterans. If you are a member of the armed forces of the United States or another country, we may release medical information about you as required by military command authorities.

Workers' Compensation. We may release medical information about you for workers' compensation or similar programs.

Public Health Risks. We may disclose to authorized public health or government officials' medical information about you for public health activities when required or authorized by law. These activities generally include the following: to a person subject to the jurisdiction of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for purposes related to the quality, safety or effectiveness of an FDA-regulated product or service; to prevent or control disease, injury or disability; to report disease or injury; to report births and deaths; to report reactions to medications and food or problems with products; to notify people of recalls or replacements of products they may be using; to notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition; to notify the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.

Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose medical information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities include, for example, audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure.

Lawsuits and Disputes. If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose medical information about you in response to a court or administrative order. We may also disclose medical information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other legal demand by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made by us or someone else to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested.

Law Enforcement/National Security/Protective Services. We may release medical information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official: in response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process; to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person; about the victim of a crime if, under certain circumstances, we are unable to obtain the person's agreement; about a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct; about criminal conduct on the premises and/or common area of a shared co-working space; and in emergency circumstances to report a crime, the location of the crime or victims, or the identity, description or location of the person who committed the crime; to authorized federal officials so they may provide protection for the President and other authorized persons, or conduct special investigations, or for intelligence, counterintelligence, and any other national security activities authorized by law.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors. We may release medical information about deceased persons to a coroner, medical examiner or funeral director so they can carry out their duties.

Other Uses of Medical Information. Other uses and disclosures of medical information not covered by this Notice or the laws that apply to us will be made with your written authorization, on a separate authorization form. You may revoke such an authorization by writing Dr. Jose Vito, and such revocation will be effective to the extent that we have not already released the information pursuant to the authorization or otherwise taken action in reliance on the authorization.

Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about your care. Usually, this includes medical and billing records. This right does not include: psychotherapy notes; information compiled for use in a legal proceeding; or certain information maintained by laboratories.

Jose Vito MD

Child. Adolescent. Adult and Addiction Psychiatry

In order to inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about you, you must submit your request in writing to Dr. Jose Vito. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain limited circumstances. If you are denied access to medical information, please contact Jose Vito, M.D. in person or in writing, during regular, business hours. He will inform you of the steps that need to be taken to exercise your rights.

Right to Request Amendments. If you think that medical information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing and submitted to Dr. Jose Vito. In addition, you must give a reason that supports your request. We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
- is not part of the medical information kept by Dr Jose Vito;
- is not part of the information you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
- is accurate and complete.

We will provide you with written notice of action we take in response to your request for an amendment.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an "accounting of disclosures." This is a list of certain disclosures we have made of medical information about you. We are not required to account for any disclosures you specifically requested or for disclosures related to treatment, payment, or healthcare operations, made pursuant to an authorization signed by you, or and which fall into certain other limited categories of disclosures.

To request an accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to Dr. Jose. Your request must state a time period, which may not be longer than six years prior to the date of your request. You may request one accounting in any 12-month period free of charge, and we will charge you for any subsequent request in the same 12-month period. Such charge may include reasonable retrieval, list preparation, and mailing costs.

Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or disclose about you. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care, such as a family member or friend. If you wish to request such a restriction, you must inform Dr. Jose Vito in writing at the address listed at the end of this Notice.

We are not required to agree to your request. If we agree to your request, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment.

Right to Request an Electronic Copy of your Medical Record. You have a right to request that we provide you with an electronic copy of your medical record. Dr Jose Vito will try to provide the information in the format you request. However, if the format is not available, we are permitted to offer other electronic formats. If none of the offered formats are acceptable to you, Dr. Jose Vito is permitted to provide you with a "hard copy". You may also request that Dr Jose Vito transmit the electronic copy directly to a third party designated by you and we will comply.

Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work or by mail. To request confidential communications, you must contact Dr. Jose Vito. We will not ask you the reason for your request. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. We will attempt to accommodate reasonable requests.

Right to Restrict Disclosures of your PHI to your Health Plan with Respect to Healthcare for which you have paid out of pocket and in full. If you pay for a service out of pocket and in full, you may request that Dr. Jose Vito not disclose information about that visit to your insurance plan and Dr. Jose Vito must honor that request.

Prohibition on Certain Disclosures or Sale of PHI Without Authorization. Dr. Jose Vito will not disclose your health information for the purpose of marketing products or services without an authorization (which authorization would state whether Dr. Jose Vito received any payment for such marketing). If your medical record contains psychotherapy notes, Dr. Jose Vito will not use or disclose the psychotherapy notes except for your specific treatment or for our training programs, or in the event of a legal proceeding brought by you or your representative against us, unless you specifically grant permission (authorization). Lastly, any other uses or disclosures not specifically described in the Notice of Privacy Practices will not be made without your written authorization. And, in the event that you authorize one or more of the above mentioned uses or disclosures, you have the right to revoke your authorization at any time by writing to us at the address below. We will honor the revocation unless we have already used or disclosed the information. Revocation will in no case affect your care with Dr. Jose Vito.

Right to be Notified in the Event of a Breach. In the event of a breach of your Protected Health Information as defined by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), you will be notified by us in a manner specified by HHS.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You have the right to a paper copy of this Notice. You may obtain a copy from by contacting Dr. Jose Vito.

Changes To This Notice. We reserve the right to change this Notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed Notice effective for medical information about you we already have as well as any information we receive in the future.

Complaints. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with Dr. Jose Vito or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. You will not be penalized or retaliated against for filing a complaint regarding your privacy rights.
